

HEART AND STROKE FOUNDATION

VANDYK Communities shows its heart

Sing For Your Heart Gala to be held Sat., May 25 in Markham

Special guests gathered Tuesday, May 7 at the Hilton Suites Markham Conference Centre for a sneak preview of the highly anticipated charity gala Sing for Your Heart – Silk Road Fiesta to be held later this month.

In a unique cuisine demonstration that filled the hall with flavourful aroma, Heart and Stroke Foundation's

Ontario CEO Tom McAllister; president of Chinese Canadian Council Dr. Gordon Moe; Sing For Your Heart Gala 2013 Event Chair Richard Ma, and Town of Richmond Hill Councillor Castro Liu participated in the making of traditional Xin Jiang mutton noodles to formally unveil this year's gala's features.

Also on hand was VANDYK Communities which has been one of the sponsors and supporters of the event. "As a home builder, VANDYK Communities takes pride in assisting community initiatives. Now in our fourth year, we are honoured to be supporting the Canadian Chinese community through the Heart and Stroke Foundation," says Rino Spano, chief marketing officer for VANDYK Communities.

The Annual Sing for Your Heart Gala will be held on Saturday, May 25 at the Hilton Suites Markham Conference Centre. This is a major long-standing fundraising event organized by the Chinese Canadian Council of the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Proceeds from the charity gala go to support health research and education programming in Chinese to move one step further towards eradicating heart disease and stroke.

Gala tickets are $188 each and are conveniently available at www.Singforyourheart.com or by contacting Tabby Li at tli@hsf.on.ca.

Rino Spano, chief marketing officer with the VANDYK Group of Companies, tries his hand at chopping noodles May 7 at the Hilton Suites Conference Centre in Markham where the Chinese Canadian Council Heart & Stroke Foundation announced its May 25 fundraiser Sing For Your Heart – Silk Road Fiesta to be held at the centre.

Seated from the left are Chinese Canadian Council HSF Director Patrick Yeung, HSF CEO Tom McAllister, Chinese Canadian Council President HSF Dr. Gordon W. Moe, Event Chair Richard

Ma, and Rino Spano of the VANDYK Group of Companies.